Shout Outs

Haleigh Grace, When you sang in your first musical in 7th grade, we had no idea that theater would become such a big part of life for our family. Now seeing you perform in your senior show is definitely bittersweet. We love watching you on stage doing what you love to do. We hope you always find joy in performing and that you will forever keep singing. Remember— when words fail, music speaks! (and yes, theater can be your sport!) We are so proud of you! Lots of love, Mom, Dad, Carter and Kinsley

Kennedy, Oh, the things you can do when you dare to be you! As Dr. Seuss says, “To the world you may be one person; but to one person, you may be the world.” Kennedy, you are our world, and we are so lucky to know and love you. From the moment you step on stage, you bring joy, heart, and a little bit of magic to everyone around you. Keep being uniquely YOU—because that’s the most wonderful thing of all! Bravo to you, our shining star, Dad, Mom, Teddy, and Lucas

Dear Cassie: From Scarlett to Mrs. Mayor in a year! Couldn’t be more proud, ugly duckling! From Mom!

Haleigh Grace, We are so proud of you! You are our shining star! We have always loved to watch you sing and perform with all your heart. Believe in yourself and your dreams. They really can come true! Love. Gramma and Grampa

To our dear teacher, so brilliant and bright,
You've made every rehearsal feel just right!
With a wink and a smile, you've led us along,
Now we're here to say, "Thanks for the song!"

From Horton to Seuss, and the Cat's crazy hat,
You've shown us the magic, and we loved all of that!
You've taught us to dance, to sing, and to play,
And to never be shy to shout, "Hey!"

From Pirates to Phantom, 42nd Street and more
You've been a part of so many- great shows galore!
You've shouted, we've listened, we've all shed some tears,
We've grown so much because of you all these years!

Now as the curtain prepares to fall,
We shout "Thank you!" —yes, one and all!
For all of the memories, the joy, and the cheer,
We'll carry your lessons far and near.

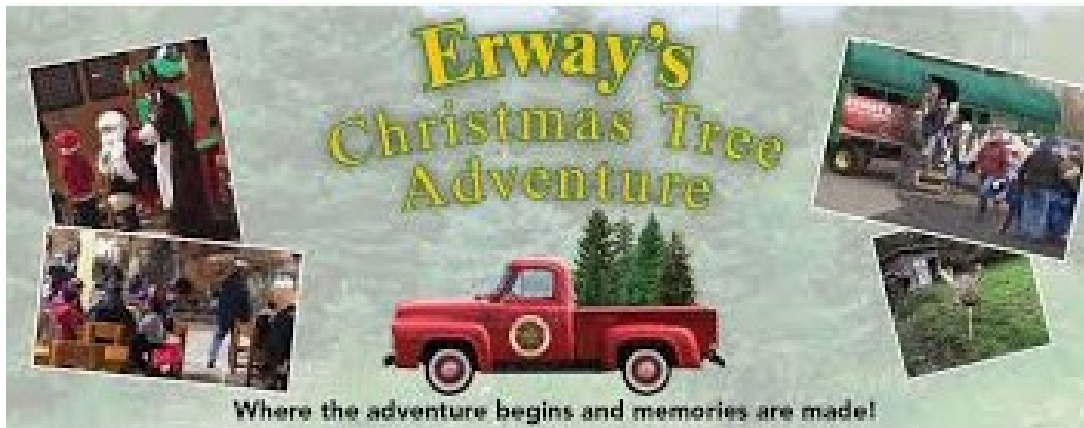

Though this may be your final bow,
We'll keep singing your praises, here and now.
With a twirl, a skip, and a tap of the shoe,
This "thank you" is silly, but oh-so-true!

Mrs. Andres, we know you probably didn't want this attention but we couldn't go without saying "because we know you, we have been changed for good!"
